

Dc Special Education

Dc Special Education - DC Public Schools aspires to be a model district for special education. Our goal is to provide high quality inclusion and special education services, and to dramatically improve academic outcomes for students with disabilities. Our four strategic goals are to:

- Special Education Schools The facilities and resources at River Terrace are specially designed for students with both intellectual disabilities and complex medical needs. Each classroom provides a safe and structured learning environment with an emphasis on sensory experience and instruction.
- Early Childhood Transition
- Local Special Education Law and Regulations
- Local Policies
- Local Policy Guidance
- Policy Notices, Hearings and Comments
- Special Education Laws and Regulations

osse Skip to main content

The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) is a law that makes available a free appropriate public education to eligible children with disabilities throughout the nation and ensures special education and related services to those children. Children and youth ages 3 through 21 receive special education and related services under IDEA Part B. Data, Systems, and Applications Access ...